

Karine Genest, M.Sc., MBA

Manager, Administration and Finance

Karine Genest holds a master's degree in kinesiology specializing in biomechanics and a master's degree in business administration (MBA) from the Université de Sherbrooke. Over the last ten years, Karine has held positions in management and co-ordination in research programs and research funding programs in the health sector.

She first worked as a research professional for renowned researchers specializing in the workplace disability sector before assuming a position as Program Officer for the Fonds de recherche du Québec - Santé, where she was responsible for administering several research funding programs.